

APRIL 4, 2009:

TRAIL WAYS TO TREASURERS: Avon, Caledonia, and Lima will be holding a joint Trail ways to Treasures event in early June, related to Routes 5 and 20, which run through each village. Interview with coordinators Bonnie Taylor-Davis and Rita Kanaley.

FRIENDS WITH FEATHERS: Ron Walker runs a non-profit organization called Friends with Feathers, which provides healing services to Birds of Prey. Interview with Ron Walker.

TASTE OF LIVINGSTON COUNTY: The Taste of Livingston County is next Tuesday. Interview with Livingston County Health Department Director Joan Ellison regarding the upcoming event.

COMMUNITY BULLETIN BOARD.

APRIL 11, 2009:

MS WALK: The Upstate Chapter of the MS Society will be holding a fund raising walk on May 9, 2009. Interview with Upstate Chapter of the MS Society Randall Semineti.

EMERGENCY FOOD AND SHELTER BOARD: The Director of the Northern Livingston County Chapter of the American Red Cross David A. Parish speaks with Cynthia Oswald about the Livingston County Emergency Food and Shelter Board.

CHAMBER NEWS: The President and CEO of the Livingston County Chamber of Commerce Cynthia Oswald talks about the latest public affairs news from that agency.

COMMUNITY BULLETIN BOARD.

APRIL 18, 2009:

UNITED WAY 2009 CAMPAIGN INTERVIEWS: Interview with three allocated non-profit organizations that receive funding from United Way of Livingston County, Boy Scouts of America (Peter Baker), Teresa House (Kate Kingsley), and Chances and Changes (Jen Muscato).

COMMUNITY BULLETIN BOARD.

APRIL 25, 2009

LEADERSHIP LIVINGSTON - FINAL INTERVIEW: The final interview of the Leadership Livingston Class of 2009, Sally Phillips from Tompkins Insurance.

LIMA SUSTAIN ABILITY FAIR: A Sustain Ability Fair will be held in Lima on May 2, 2009. Sustain Ability dealing with Agreen@ products. Interview with John and Martha Sempowski, co-organizers of the fair.

IDENTITY THEFT: The Livingston County Sheriff John aJack@ York is concerned about identity theft happening in Livingston County. Bonus interview, Sheriff York brought his granddaughter Madison, age five, for the interview.

COMMUNITY BULLETIN BOARD.

MAY 2, 2009:

BUSINESS EDUCATION ALLIANCE: The Business Education Alliance is accepting application for Educator of the Year. Interview with Carrie Malone, Executive Director of the Livingston County Business Education Alliance.

REPEAT: FRIENDS WITH FEATHERS: Ron Walker runs a non-profit organization called Friends with Feathers, which provides healing services to Birds of Prey. Interview with Ron Walker.

COMMUNITY INITIATIVE COUNCIL: The Livingston County Community Initiative Council will soon be allocating money to various organizations. Interview with Livingston County Planning Department Director Angela Ellis.

COMMUNITY BULLETIN BOARD.

MAY 9, 2009:

GIRL SCOUTS AND UNITED WAY: Deb Kenyon from the Girl Scouts talks about the agency and the importance of the United Way.

SEXUALLY TRANSMITTED INFECTIONS (OR DISEASES): Livingston County Department of Health is always concerned with the issue of sexually transmitted infections (or diseases). Interview with Jackie Small from the Livingston County Department of Health.

CORNELL COOPERATIVE EXTENSION: The Cornell Cooperative Extension has a new program called Eat Smart New York. Interview with program director Joy Hagerman.

COMMUNITY BULLETIN BOARD.

MAY 16, 2009:

YOUTH ADVOCACY PROGRAM: The Youth Advocacy Program, a United Way funded agency provides services to young people in the local community. Interview with Lea Fletcher, Director of the Youth Advocacy Program.

UNITED WAY UPDATE: The United Way is in the midst of their annual campaign. Update with Karen Rumfola, Director of United Way of Livingston and Wyoming County.

LITERACY VOLUNTEERS: Literacy update with the Director of Literacy Volunteers of Livingston County Karen Six.

COMMUNITY BULLETIN BOARD.

MAY 23, 2009

CAPITOL REPORT: Assemblyman Joseph J. Errigo provides the latest happenings in New York State Government.

GENESEE COUNCIL ON THE ARTS: The Apartment Gallery opens on June 2. Program Director Salmome Ferraro from the Genesee Valley Council on the Arts talks about the new gallery.

4-H AND CORNELL COOPERATIVE EXTENSION: 4-H Director Bo Freeman talks about that organization=s work in Livingston County.

COMMUNITY BULLETIN BOARD.

MAY 30, 2009:

HEALTH DEPARTMENT REPORT: Yvonne Beardsley, Public Health Educator for the Livingston County Department of Health, discusses osteoporosis.

THE REAL MEMORIAL DAY: While Memorial Day was celebrated last Monday, traditional commemoration is really on May 30. Executive Director of the Veterans Service Agency Frank Hollister discusses the meaning of Memorial Day and some of the issues faced by veterans.

CHAMBER HEALTH INSURANCE: The Livingston County Chamber of Commerce is able to offer a new type of low cost health insurance. Interview with the self proclaimed >Chamber Chicks,= CEO Cindy Oswald and Health Insurance Director for the Chamber, Deb Cisco.

COMMUNITY BULLETIN BOARD.

JUNE 6, 2009:

GREATEST GENERATION TOUR: Livingston County Tourism Director Lisa Burns talks about a new tour in Livingston County, which included the New Deal Gallery, the Historical Air Group, and Civilian Conservation Corps memorabilia at Letchworth State Park.

AVON OPERA BLOCK: Kelley Cole, Deputy Supervisor for the Town of Avon, discusses the latest news on the Avon Opera Block.

READING AT A LOWER LEVEL: Executive Director of Literacy Volunteers of Livingston County Karen Six explores the root causes of why people read at a lower level.

COMMUNITY BULLETIN BOARD.
JUNE 13, 2009

BEST OF LIVINGSTON ON LINE: Show Producer Bob D=Angelo is on vacation for the week, necessitating a best of@ show. Repeat interviews with Livingston County Historian Aimee Alden, Miss Rochester 2008, and Lee Shanks.

COMMUNITY BULLETIN BOARD.

JUNE 20, 2009:

YORK FIELD DAYS: The Annual York Field Days will be held on July 2, 2009, complete with fireworks. Interview with Bill Lubanski, York Field Day Board Member.

GENESEO CONCERT SERIES: Geneseo is hosting a series of summer concerts in the Village Park. Interview with Sandy Brennan, Geneseo Village Trustee and Organizer Dick Gallivan.

GENESSEE VALLEY COUNCIL ON THE ARTS: Summer arts activities through the Genesee Valley Council on the Arts. Interview with Program Director Chris Norton.

COMMUNITY BULLETIN BOARD

JUNE 27, 2009:

SUMMER SAFETY: Summer safety tips from the Livingston County Health Department. Interview with Public Health Educator Joey L. Finocchiaro.

SUMMER HIGHWAY CONSTRUCTION: The New York State Department of Transportation has road projects in Livingston County this summer. Interview with Lori Maher from the New York State Department of Transportation.

LIVINGSTON COUNTY 4-H: Mary Ann Schramburg of Livingston County Cornell Cooperative Extension leads a discussion among three members of the local 4-H, Steven Benzus, Jan Neidermaier, and Rebecah Hull.

COMMUNITY BULLETIN BOARD